

Contract All Expand All

KNR 254 - Social-Psychological Perspectives in Physical Activity
Code	Description	Instructed	Evaluated
PS-1	Describe the basic principles of personality traits, trait anxiety, locus ... of control, intrinsic and extrinsic motivation, and patient and social environment interactions as they affect patient interactions. <input type="checkbox"/>
PS-3	Describe how psychosocial considerations affect clinical decision-making ... related to return to activity or participation (eg, motivation, confidence). <input type="checkbox"/>
PS-7	Describe the psychological techniques (eg, goal setting, imagery, ... positive self-talk, relaxation/anxiety reduction) that the athletic trainer can use to motivate the patient during injury rehabilitation and return to activity processes. <input type="checkbox"/>
PS-8	Describe psychological interventions (eg, goal setting, motivational ... techniques) that are used to facilitate a patient's physical, psychological, and return to activity needs. <input type="checkbox"/>

Copyright 2007-2012, National Athletic Trainers' Association - ATrack.